No one knows the future for certain, except God alone. I suspect, however, that given what God has revealed to us in His word, and what we can see now developing with our eyes, that a change is in the air for Israeli politics...

Welcome to another edition of the End Times Berean Watchman Report!

A Fifth Round of Election Voting

On November 1st, Israel will go to the polls for the fifth time since 2019. At the moment, the strong possibility exists that a fully right-wing government will be elected—the most religiously conservative and Zionist government Israel has ever had. Many in Israel are terrified of that, just like many in America were terrified of a Trump led America, but I think that is exactly what Israel needs right now.

In all the prior governments in which Netanyahu has been able to form a government and lead as Prime Minister, he has been forced to compromise by accepting more centrist/left-leaning parties in order to reach the minimum threshold of a 61-seat coalition.

The current polls suggest that the right-wing bloc will emerge with somewhere between 60-62 seats. I urge you to be praying that the Netanyahu bloc will garner at least 61 seats, and that if they do, that God will give them the strength and wisdom to do what is right, according to His will. The parties that need to add up to 61 are Likud (est. 30-34), Religious Zionism (est. 13-15), Shas (est. 8-9), United Torah Judaism (est. 7, but if the Haredi Jews all turned out to vote they could reach 9 or 10 seats).

KAN News Poll - Netanyahu 60 seats

Israel Hayom Poll - Netanyahu 61 seats

Channel 14 News Poll - Netanyahu 62 seats

This election is balanced on the edge of a knife. It could go either way, but I'm sensing that this time it will be different and Netanyahu will emerge with a clear mandate to form a conservative right-wing government. What happens then is anyone's guess, but I think we will see a government that will fight for equal access and religious rights on the Temple Mount.

If I'm right, this could also set up the conditions for the Abomination of Desolation in 2024, but we don't oppose doing the right thing because the enemy may also use it later for evil.

I hope you watch the results of this election come in and are praying for its outcome and for bravery and wisdom for the Knesset members who are ultimately elected to sit in Israel's government. I think it will be even more important than the U.S. elections which will take place a week later...

Are We Already In World War III, or Not?

I think that the official jury may still be out on this, or maybe they're just afraid to announce the verdict, but the evidence for it is piling up.

Here is a very left-leaning article, and yet it is very critical of the war-mongering and relentless march towards conflict that the Biden-Harris administration has been enacting. It also calls the Trump administration fascist, which is an outright lie, but don't trip over that, just pay attention to the statements that are being released by the White House and how even left-leaning sources are understanding the verbiage.

Also did you hear that Biden warned that the conflict (war) with Russia could trigger a nuclear "Armageddon." An amazingly loaded word to use, and I think it was used Providentially.

Less than one week after US President Joe Biden warned that the US conflict with Russia could trigger a nuclear “Armageddon,” the White House published a national security strategy pledging to “win” American global hegemony through military violence.

As further evidence that even some people on the left are beginning to recognize the bait and switch from a platform that was supposedly for the disadvantaged, diversity, a clean environment, individual liberty, and justice for all, to what it really was all along—a marxist-fascist totalitarian globalist movement—watch this video where people from within the Democratic Party turned on AOC and made some pointed accusations.

AOC Confronted For Pro-War Votes, BETRAYAL Of Promises: 'You Are The ESTABLISHMENT'

Remember that while the invasion of Poland by Germany began on September 1, 1939, the conflict didn't spread within Europe until May of 1940 when German troops overran Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, and France in six weeks (beginning 8 months later), and the U.S. didn't enter the war until Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941 (27 months after the invasion of Poland).

So it's true that we haven't yet seen an event to fully galvanize an official World War III. Nevertheless, there remains plenty of reasons to expect one in the near future.

Global Inflation and Recession

And you might be beginning to feel the pinch of inflation and higher prices, but in some parts of the world things are already getting critical. By all accounts, the worst is yet to hit us in 2023.

I want to be clear that I don't celebrate any of this, but it does look real to me. And it looks like it is all matching very closely with what we should be looking for from the rider on a black horse, which is released by the opening of the third seal.

Aside from the global financial crisis and the peak of the Covid-19 pandemic, this is “the weakest growth profile since 2001,” the IMF said in its WEO published Tuesday morning.

“The worst is yet to come, and for many people 2023 will feel like a recession,” the report said, echoing warnings from the United Nations, the World Bank and many global CEOs.

Until Next Time...

The times we find ourselves in are very serious. The world is changing, whether we like it or not. I hope you are encouraged that this also means that the Lord's return must, too, be very near indeed. I take courage from that, and because of that hope, I do not despair that all these things are taking place.

Let us share that hope with everyone that God places in our path.

I hope you will remember to pray for me and for the word to get out about my books, so that the truths uncovered in them can have an impact for God's glory in these Last Days.

It's exciting to be watching this all take place, and I'm glad you're watching with me.

Blessings,
Christian
